RESCUE INVITES COUNTY TO ELEVENTH ANNUAL PICNIC ON MOTHERS' DAY

Exercises At Litten-MacDonald Grove Will Open At 10:30 O'Clock In The Morning; Sports Events During Afternoon

A community event instituted eleven years ago by the Grange and the Farm Center at Rescue at the suggestion of Mrs. Julia MacDonald, will be held for the eleventh time on Sunday, May 11th.

It is the Mothers' Day Picnic.

Continuing active as an "honorary" member of the committee in charge, Mrs. MacDonald this year is in charge of the arrangement of the exercises which are held each year, opening at 10:30 o'clock in the morning at the Litten-MacDonald Grove.

"We have had many inquiries from distant points wanting to know about the picnic and we hope that we shall again have a large attendance and perhaps we will," Mrs. MacDonald said in a visit to our office Tuesday.

"Of course we want everyone to come. This is a community affair and we like to see all of our friends in Rescue at least once a year; and with good weather we can promise a very pleasant and a very interesting time."

Mrs. MacDonald announced that the El Dorado County Band will be in attendance for the exercises and that District Attorney Henry S. Lyon will give the Mothers' Day address. Other speakers will include George Schimpey, master of the State Grange, and James A. Irving, county Farm Bureau president. L. J. Anderson will be master of ceremonies.

Harry Cridge will lead community singing, Prof. Louis Gearhart and the Folsom Male Chorus will be heard, arrangements are being made for an additional vocal soloist and Dolores Oates and Gordon Fisk, of the Rescue 4-H Club, will be heard in talks on "Citizenship."

Mrs. MacDonald confessed she has hopes of obtaining an especially interesting personality in the state to speak on the program, but in the absence of final confirmation of arrangements in this regard, she is unable to make an announcement.

The afternoon sports program is being arranged under the leadership of County School Superintendent K. W. McCoy.

INCOME TAX PAYMENTS ARE CAREFULLY CHECKED BY UNCLE SAM

WASHINGTON, (UP)—The federal government is cracking down on income tax returns for small taxpayers for the first time, it was learned today. Officials disclosed delinquencies in returns on incomes under $5,000 are running about twice as high as last year.

Revelation of the drive on low income brackets came as the house ways and means committee continued to hear the views of taxpayers on the proposed $3,600,000,000 revenue bill. Rep. Jerry Voorhis, D., of California, and 10 business and industrial executives were scheduled to testify.

For the first time, informational returns filed by employers are being checked against individual returns filed by employees. The internal revenue bureau had added 1,731 new deputy collectors to its field staff to tighten up the entire collection system.

MADRE DE ORO REPORTED WORKING ON COUNTY QUICKSILVER DEPOSIT

Crews of the Madre de Oro Mines Inc., are at work in opening up a quicksilver deposit on the Celio property about ten miles south of El Dorado says a Sacramento paper.

The old wagon road leading to the property has been repaired and work is being carried on in the main tunnel.

According to old records the property was first opened in the early '60s. Closing of the property some time later was reported as due to the low price of metal.

Mrs. Fletcher Ruffin, who had been here from Roseville in connection with the opening of her apparel shop, returned Wednesday to her home.

MRS. VOLZ NEW CLUB LEADER

Picnic Meeting June 3 At Shepard Ranch Will Install Heads For Year

Mrs. Hazel Volz, of Fruit Ridge, was elected president of the Placerville Shakespeare Club for the new year at the regular annual election of officers on Tuesday. She succeeds Mrs. John S. Nelson.

Other officers chosen include Mrs. Lester McKenzie, vice-president; Mrs. Nora Gray, recording secretary; Mrs. Ellsworth Miller, treasurer; Mrs. Percy McNie, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. H. P. Brown, board member.

On Wednesday, members of the club announced Mrs. Volz has invited the club to hold its annual picnic meeting at her home on the Shepard ranch, at Fruit Ridge, when officers for the new year will be installed.

Soils District Starts Work

Machinery, Available For Next Month, Will Return Again For Fall Period

Land leveling by a giant bulldozer on the Wilkinson Brothers ranch signals the beginning of assistance to local farmers by the Central El Dorado Soil Conservation District, according to Roy M. Marks, president.

One of the principal objectives of the district is the building of overnight storage reservoirs, and machinery to do this job has been borrowed from the Soil Conservation Service. With the machinery available, several farmers have seized the opportunity to level small acreages of formerly mined over land which can be used advantageously as pasture.

In addition to the land leveling, a series of overnight storage reservoirs, built according to engineering specifications, will be constructed during the next two weeks. With such a reservoir in his irrigation system the farmer can store his water overnight and do all of his irrigating during the daytime.

The bulldozer, packer and other machinery are available for the balance of this month to farmers who have signed cooperative agreements with the district.

Marks also announced that in the event other farmers wished to build reservoirs the equipment would again be available in the fall.

PLACERVILLE HAT LABEL CLUE TO IDENTITY OF CORPSE

Sonoma County authorities made inquiry by telephone during the week at the Round Tent store, in hope of learning something of the identity of a man found dead near Petaluma.

His hat bore the label of Frank E. Simon.

Press reports said that the man had, apparently, been dead for several weeks and that a small revolver was in his right hand.

The Round Tent store explained that there could be no definite clue to the identity of the man through the mere purchase of the hat, although it was possible that he might have formerly been in this county in one of the state work camps.

Mrs. Frank Irwin left Tuesday for Los Molinos in response to summons announcing the death of her father, W. T. Swan, on Tuesday following a heart attack. Mr. Irwin will go to Los Molinos Thursday to join Mrs. Irwin at the funeral services.

Mrs. Myron Immer is here from Truckee, visiting relatives and other friends.

Jerry Davis Cops Net Championship

Jerry Davis, star of the El Dorado high tennis team, won the Mother Lode boys singles championship at Jackson Saturday, defeating Candle, of Sonoma, 6-3, 6-3.

Davis is the fourth man from the local school to have won the title since competition started several years ago, and his victory is the third in a row for El Dorado, the locals having won in 1939 and '40. Last year's victory retired the cup, so Davis' win will be the first to go on the new cup.

Barbara Long and Floris Gregory, the champion girls doubles team of the Northern Section of the Mother Lode, lost to June and Carolyn Sorracco, the title holders of the Southern Division, 6-2, 6-2.

CALIFORNIA FARM PARADE

By United Press

News for the vegetable farmer occludes the front page of the farm front today.

The agriculture department reports that improved weather conditions in most of the spring producing areas of the south and west is increasing both marketing and prospective future supplies of new potatoes and truck crops. And this news comes at an opportune time. The administration wants to make sure that we can grow enough to fill our needs as well as our own.

The increased supplies have caused market prices of many vegetables to slump. But the department believes this is only temporary. Average prices for vegetables during late April were generally lower than the previous month.

Supplies of new potatoes for immediate marketing are not as large as last year. This is due largely to a reduction in the north Florida crop. But supplies in prospect in other early states—which harvest this month—probably will be slightly larger than those of a year earlier. There are also adequate supplies of old stock potatoes available for any unforeseen developments.

The need for food for the defense program has caused a sharp advance in market prices of dry ed-

DR. HOSKING IS NEW TOWNSHIP JUDGE

Supervisors Vote Against Suggested Change In Gas Tax Funds Allocation

Dr. Richard G. Hosking, of El Dorado, was named Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors to be Justice of the Peace in Mud Springs township, completing the unexpired term of the late Will G. Taylor. His term expires in January of 1943.

The board was visited by a delegation representing Granges in the Second District, whose members suggested to the board the desirability of distributing the county's share of the gas tax funds received from the state, upon a basis of road mileage in the five road districts. The present practice is to divide the fund equally into fifths.

Following consideration of the proposal, the board voted four to one in favor of maintaining the present system of distribution for the gas tax fund.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Eleanor Wilson as a member of the county board of education and appointed to complete her term M. E. Wright, vice-principal at the high school.

On the matter of the return of relief to the counties, as provided in Senate Bill 133, passed by the legislature, the board voted 4 to 1 in favor of the bill and urged El Dorado County's legislators to support the measure. The dissenting vote was cast by Supervisor P. J. Hall.

Among other business, the board granted Mrs. Elizabeth Sayers, county welfare officer, leave to attend a welfare officers' convention at Santa Cruz, May 25 and 26.

County Passed In 9th Draft

1,134 Men Will Report For Induction In State On May 19, 20 And 21

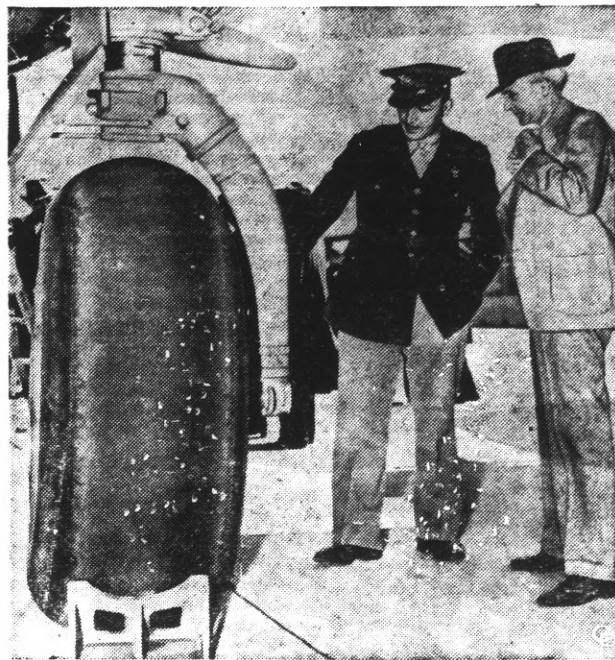

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—State selective service headquarters today announced dates and board quotas for the ninth draft call on May 19, 20 and 21.

The call includes 1134 men to be taken from 70 boards of the state's 284 districts. The original allotment for the ninth call was 189 but it was expanded to include all replacements and rejections, bringing all boards up to date.

State headquarters combined the sixth and seventh quotas set by army officials into one state quota, hence the official listing of today's call in number eight, although it is the ninth in sequence since the draft procedure was started.

Quotas include: El Dorado, none.

TAHOE, DISCOVERED IN 1844, IS "VALENTINE OF SIERRA"

Fremont First Saw Lake On February 14th, And Called It "Lake Bonpland;" Present Name First Appeared On Map In Year Of 1862

By DR. PETER T. CONMY
Grand Historian, N. S. G. W.

(In connection with preparations for the Sixty-Fourth Grand Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, at Lake Tahoe, May 19-22, District Attorney Henry S. Lyon, Grand President of the order, has made the accompanying historical review of Lake Tahoe available to the local press and has supplied a copy of the article to the high school.)

On May 19, 1941, the sixty-fourth session of the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West will convene at Lake Tahoe in El Dorado County. The presiding officer of this convention will be Grand President Henry Sherman Lyon, president district attorney of El Dorado County, and native of the old mining camp of Smith Flat situated in the same county.

The Native Sons of the Golden West is a fraternal society which is built upon the aim and purpose of honoring the pioneers of California, the fathers and mothers of the long ago, and to perpetuate and preserve California history and landmarks. It is fitting and proper and fully in accord with the purposes of the fraternity that the Grand Parlor should convene at Lake Tahoe, itself part of California's wonderland, and itself important in the history of the state.

Lake Tahoe was discovered by the great pathfinder and explorer of the west, John C. Fremont. The discovery was not made, as one might expect, by his actually reaching the shores of the lake, coming across the same on his explorations. The fact of the matter is that Fremont was many miles away when his eyes held for the first time the great body of water that sparkles in the high Sierra. El Dorado County, abuts the southern end of Lake Tahoe. Southeast of El Dorado County, apart from the others, difficult to reach, was the little county of Alpine. In this county there are many high mountains. It was from one of these, either Stevens Peak or Mount Round Top that on the fourteenth of February, 1844 Fremont made the discovery of Lake Tahoe.

His diary entry for this event is quoted below: "February 14th — The dividing ridge of the Sierra is in sight from this encampment. Accompanied by Mr. Preuss, I ascended today the highest peak to the right; from which we had a beautiful view of a mountain lake at our feet, about fifteen miles in length and so entirely surrounded by mountains that we could not discover an outlet." It should be recalled that Fremont and his men had suffered much during the weeks immediately preceding the discovery of the body of water which they called, and which for many years thereafter was known as Mountain Lake. The sight of such a body of water, magnificent and beautiful, on February 14th must have been a figurative Valentine. Indeed there is reason to believe that they beheld this oval-shaped body of water and its oval-

NAZI DRIVE ON GIBRALTAR EXPECTED

Commons Gives Churchill Overwhelming Vote Of Confidence On War Issue

MADRID, (UP)—Reports from La Linea said the remaining civil population at Gibraltar had been ordered today to leave as soon as possible, presumably as a result of fresh reports of an imminent attack on the British fortress by Axis forces.

By UNITED PRESS

Great Britain today promised the Axis powers a "fight to the death" in the middle east and predicted greatly increased American aid in the battle of the Atlantic. London newspapers went farther and forecast early United States entry into the war.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill outlined Britain's plans and hopes in a fighting speech that won him a 447 to 3 vote of confidence in the house of commons while British Imperialers were helping him make good his promises by dashing 300 miles over the Iraq desert to chase pro-Axis troops away from the besieged R. A. F. base at Habbaniya. The British also regained one military post in the vital pipe line from the Mosul oil fields.

"I am the one whose head should be cut off if we don't win the war," Churchill snapped in reply to criticisms of David Lloyd George. The world war premier had charged that Turkey permitted German troop ships to pass through the Dardanelles to the Mediterranean and that Japan was awaiting an opportunity to seize control of the Pacific Ocean from the United States.

The speech still emphasized the importance of the battle of the Atlantic and the London press forecast American entry into the con-

Heavy Tax On Autos Urged

Price Control Chief Would Boost Excise Levy To 20 Per Cent

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Price control administrator Leon Henderson today advocated increasing the federal excise tax on automobiles to 20 per cent—nearly six times the present rate—and an extension of that tax to used cars as well as new models.

He hoped that because of the "prime necessity of out-producing Hitler," estimated defense expenditures of $12,000,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1 may be increased to "at least $18,000,000,000 and probably $20,000,000,000."

Henderson told the house ways and means committee that such articles as automobiles and refrigerators compete with defense production and that high taxes on them are justified both to reduce public purchases of these goods and to raise more revenue. He would raise $900,000,000 instead of the $300,000,000 in new excise levies proposed by the treasury.

The treasury has recommended doubling the existing 3 1/2 per cent tax on cars.

Henderson said defense expenditures soon will run at a rate of $1,000,000,000 a month but that the defense program should be "older and bigger . . . that our sights were too low, and still are."

THE OLD HOME TOWN By STANLEY

LOCHINVAR IN RAGS
by KATHRYN CULVER
Copyright 1938 by United Features Syndicate, Inc.

Julie Hamilton, small-town Southern girl, has drifted into her engagement to Kenneth Terry because they were childhood sweethearts, but he is not dashing enough to suit her, and she longs for romance with a capital R. When he comes under the spell of Isolda Fleming, glamorous visitor from New York Julie is indifferent. On the day before her twentieth birthday, while she and Edith Terry, Kenneth's cousin, are in the Hamilton kitchen preparing for a party, a disheveled but handsome young tramp appears at the back door, then faints. Reviving, he says he is Barry Caldwell, from the West, and is hiking to New York for a radio audition. Over the protests of Edith, who points out he may be a thief, Julie invites him to stay in the garage but, when she hears her father approaching the kitchen, she begs the young man to hide outdoors. He draws himself up and says he is not ashamed to meet her father.

CHAPTER III
Julie stepped to the young man's side and laid an urgent hand on his arm.

"If you don't mind," said the officer, "we'd like to search the premises."

"Please, Mr. Caldwell!" she begged. "For my sake!"
His dark eyes looked down into hers for a fraction of a second.
"Very well," he gave in. "For your sake, Miss Julie." He turned toward the door.
"But don't go away!" Julie added quickly. "Jake is waiting for you outside. He'll take you out to the garage. Promise me you won't go away—just yet!"
He hesitated. "All right," he agreed, picking up his broken suitcase.
Julie hastily pushed him out doors toward the waiting Jake, and closed the door on him just in time.
The door from the hall swung open, and Mr. Hamilton stood on the threshold. Julie flew to him and put her arms around his neck.

NEWS PERSONALS

Reno reports a license to wed issued there on Monday to Rondal Partridge, 23, of New York, and Elizabeth Woolpart, 23, of Placerville.

Among marriage licenses issued the latter part of last week at Reno was one to Leo A. Maxwell, 44, and Ellmore M. Richardson, 28, both of whom gave their address as Kyburz.

Mrs. Ella Norris was in town on Wednesday morning and carrying a large bouquet of Coloma's choice blooms.

John Huberty, supervisor in the agricultural conservation program for Calaveras County, was in Placerville Tuesday on business at the local association office.

F. J. Frost returned the fore part of the week to Stevenson, near Fresno, following a visit here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil J. Abbott of Placerville are the parents of a son, Harry James Abbott, born April 29.

Dr. and Mrs. Lester B. Rantz have as their guests this week the doctor's sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Thompson and Mrs. Nellie Wray, of Lakeport.

duck? Don't you remember the doctor banned duck from my diet? Infernal old quack!"

Julie laughed nervously at his own.
"You get on back to the front where you belong!" She put her hands on his back and pushed him toward the hall. "We're busy out here!"

Edith started to follow him out, but Julie caught her arm and vanked her back.

"Don't you go tattling!" she breathed. "Everything will be perfectly all right if you'll just let me handle it."

Edith glared at her. Six years older than Julie, she often felt like taking the younger girl over her knee and spanking her. This was one of the times. It was the limit for her to put that complete stranger out in the garage!

"Julie!" she said severely. "I won't tattle, but I think you should tell your father about that tramp!"

"He isn't a tramp!" Julie flared. "You heard him tell his story—I believe him!"

"It's probably just a story he tells at back doors to get sympathy and a handout," Edith scoffed. "Oh, you're utterly heartless!" Julie retorted. "You haven't any feeling—or imagination. Didn't you feel a thrill when he drew himself up and refused to sneak out until I begged him to?"

Edith sighed. "You're incurably romantic. No wonder Kenneth isn't dashing enough to suit you." Julie sank down on a chair her face dreamy.

"Think of him niking all the way from Arizona to New York for an audition! I bet he has a marvelous voice! He looks so—so artistic!"

"That's the result of malnutrition," Edith said dryly. She shrugged. "Well, he may as well spend the night, since you've already got him out there. But you must send him on his way tomorrow."

"Tomorrow?" A light suddenly leaped into Julie's eyes. "Edith! I've got an idea! He's our extra man—the one we need for the party!"

Edith gasped. "Julie! Are you completely mad?"

"Why not?" Julie defied an excited smile curving her lips. "Don't you ever feel like doing mad things?"

"But—but a nobby!" Edith protested.

"Hobo nothing! I'll bet he'll look simply stunning dressed up! Ever in his old clothes, he looks like a gentleman. And if you keep quiet, nobody need know just how he came here—"

AI THAT moment she was interrupted by the wail of a police siren. It drew rapidly nearer finally died to a moan just in front of the house.

The two girls stared at each other with wide eyes.

"I'll go to the door," Edith said quickly.

She slipped out of the kitchen and ran down the hallway as the front doorbell sounded a peremptory summons.

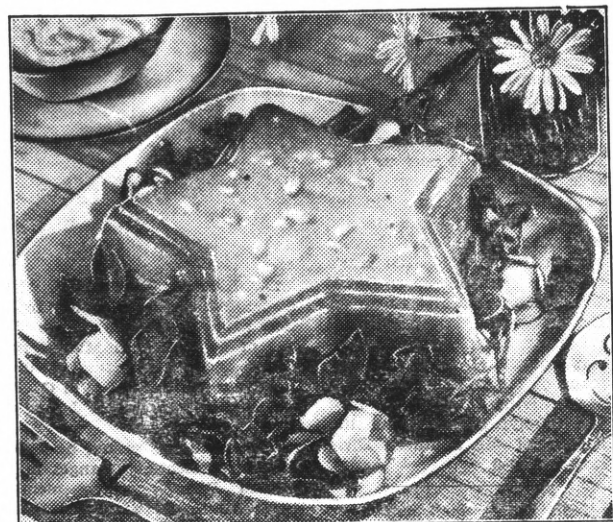

Julie, remaining in the kitchen stood listening breathlessly. The gruff voice of an officer floated down the hall to her.

"Good evening, Miss Terry," she heard him say. "Sorry to disturb you, but we had a phone call about a suspicious character seen hanging around this house."

A suggestion for just such a hearty jellied main course dish is this one. It is filled thick with shrimps and cool crunchy pieces of celery and cucumber, all in lively-flavored tomato jelly.

Supervisor Niegel had men and equipment busy last week widening and scraping Mt. Murphy grade, also the entire strip of road under his care which extends on to the Big Sandy Creek bridge where it joins the Lotus grade. This work is a more than good example of what can be done when there is a will to do it, with a road that has always been a pain in the neck to both supervisors and travelers alike.

The Priscilla Club, whose members represent pioneer Yolo county families celebrated its 33rd anniversary at Marshall Park Sunday. A picnic luncheon was enjoyed and out door games. The club evinced great interest in the beauty of Coloma valley and its historic background. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Borach, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. ### Sunday Morning TREAT

by Dorothy Greig

SUNDAY morning breakfast calls for something extra special. For that's the one morning in the week we can luxuriate in the sun streaming in over the table, the cheerful perk-perk of the coffee, our favorite funnies—and the well liked fish there isn't time for on gobbie-and-gallop mornings.

Codfish balls, for instance... made my way they're fluffy tender on the inside, golden, lightly crisp on the outside, and served in bubbling hot tomato sauce. Dear me, why aren't there two Sunday mornings at least in every week?

Codfish Balls in Hot Tomato Sauce
1 cup salt codfish
2 1/2 cups potatoes, peeled and cubed
1/2 tablespoon butter
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 egg (beaten slightly)

Soak codfish overnight in cold water. The following morning pour off the water and shred by placing on cutting board and pulling apart with a fork. Codfish shreds easily if soaked at least 12 hours. Cook potatoes until tender, drain thoroughly and return to kettle in which they were cooked. Shake over the heat until thoroughly dry, mash well, add butter and pepper and beat until light; add flaked codfish, beaten egg and continue beating until mixture is light and fluffy. Add more salt if necessary. Make the balls by dipping with an ice cream scoop (No. 16) or by dropping from a spoon. Fry in deep fat (375° F.) for one minute. Drain on brown paper. If cakes stick to hand when being shaped for frying, roll lightly in small amount of flour. Makes about nine cakes. Serves 4-5.

Tomato Sauce for Codfish Balls
Heat condensed tomato soup just as it comes from the can. Pour the hot tomato sauce in a platter or chop plate and place the golden brown codfish balls in the hot sauce.

HI CHATTER

BY Bill Dillinger
Publicity Chairman

On Tuesday afternoon, at Bennett Park, San Juan wrote a dismal ending to a rather disappointing Cougar baseball season, defeating the locals by a three to one score, despite three hit pitching by the El Dorado hurler, Pierce. The home team just couldn't seem to hit in the pinches.

The Cougars really gave Ione a walloping Friday, winning twenty to one, but that didn't make up for their two previous losses, so the league championship went to Ione.

Mental Hazards

Jerry Davis should receive a gold heart along with the gold tennis rackets which he will receive as Mother Lode champ; for his was a double victory. He had to contend with a hard playing opponent on the other side of the net, and a beautiful blonde on the sidelines. Jerry nearly went cross-eyed trying to watch both at the same time.

Barbara Long blames her eyesight for her failure to win the Girls Doubles championship. It seems there was an "oh so handsome man" acting as scorekeeper!

School Tourney

Tennis hopefuls are now signing up for the intramural tennis tournament, to be played during the next week or so. Two cups, one for the boys' champ and one for the girls' winner are at stake and judging from the number who have signed for the competition, there'll be a wild battle from start to finish. Barbara Long is defending champion in the girls' division, while Jerry Davis is the odds-on favorite on the boys' side of the ledger.

Mothers Day

Friday afternoon is the date set for the Mothers Day Tea, an event sponsored by the Boys' and Girls' League. Refreshments will be served, and an excellent program of entertainment has been planned. A one act play, "Where But in America," with Eddis Howe, Marilyn Wiley and Ray Lumley in the cast, the Fashion Show, which proved so popular at Public Schools Night, are the main items, with several short numbers also planned.

"The Winnahs"

The battle's over; you can come out of the bomb shelter now. Yep, the student body elections are past history, and newly elected vice president, Louie Brunello is already sinking into the traditional oblivion of his office. New President is Jack "Wee-wee" Emmerson, and the secretary-elect is Lois Collins. Commissioners are: finance, Martin Luther; entertainment, Cecilia Morton, and publicity, Lorette Boromini.

Schools Week

Open house night proved to be quite a gala occasion, with the foods department, shops, fashion show, and class room demonstrations sharing the honors with the feature program in the auditorium. There was the usual excitement in the chemistry lab, where one experiment went off by accident, and another went "up" for the same reason. No damage done, however, except to the nerves of the spectators.

Flash's Home

"Flash" Allen is the possessor of a "loving cup." Now wait a minute, girls, they gave this one for talking, not for wooing. You see, "Flash" won the district contest in the Bankers Association public speaking contest, and the cup was part of the booty.

One, Two, Three, Turn!
"Come on, 'alligators,' let's do some fancy 'rug-cuttin'." Or maybe I'm jumping the gun a little. Anyway, Miss Saunders and Mr. Lehan have decided to teach ballroom dancing, and when they asked all those who were interested to report to the gym, about half the student body showed up. The idea is to teach the lads and lassies enough about the gentle art of keeping off each other's toes to enable them to enjoy the Junior Prom and Senior Ball. About ninety girls and eighty-six boys signed up for instruction.

TIMBER LEAGUE ROLLS AT PEAR BOWL TONIGHT

The Timber league in the county bowling association holds the alleys at the Pear Bowl tonight for their regular series, opening at eight o'clock.

Tuesday night the Pony Express League had its inning, with the Coca Colas taking two from St. Patricks, Cannon Chevrolet claiming two from Standard Oil, and the Lions dropping three to the Gene Morrisons.

High spots of the night included a 582 series by Bill Byrnes, of St. Patricks, with 189-229-164; a 503 series by Joe Beach, of the Lions, with 206-159-138, and a 602 series by Curt Coppin, of the Gene Morrisons, with 202-235-165.

The western part of Modoc County will probably have a heavy infestation of grasshoppers next summer.

Know This Baby?

dict, especially to throw United States naval strength on Britain's side.

The speech of Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, emphasizing proposals to use the American warships to get supplies to Britain, was regarded in London as a promise of early naval action, although Nazis viewed the declarations as "nothing new" and repeated their threat to torpedo any vessels entering the war zone. The consequences of such American action, the Germans said, "are clear."

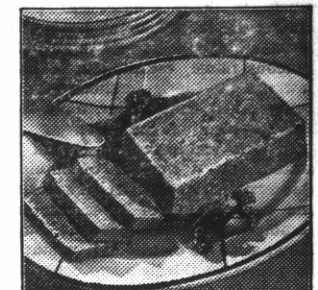

The formality of putting Josef V. Stalin in the office of premier of Soviet Russia, also was regarded in London as a sign of encouragement. Servers were inclined to regard the move to strengthen Russia's armed neutrality rather than as an immediate danger to Germany.

Fish-Mushroom LOAF

by Dorothy Greig

THE big solemn gaze of my small fry visitor watched me as I turned out this loaf and started to slice it. "It's tidy, isn't it?" she observed.

That seemed an odd but amusingly accurate way to describe the tuna loaf. For it does slice down neatly without breaking or shedding crumbs.

It might be called a Surprise Loaf because while made of tuna fish its flavor resembles chicken. Then, too, the condensed soup gives a subtle mingling of mushroom flavor through and through. Serve this loaf cold or hot. It's good either way!

1 can tuna fish (7 oz. size)
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1/2 cup milk
2 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs
1 tablespoon pimiento, chopped
1 tablespoon parsley, chopped
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 eggs

Put the tuna fish in a strainer and run hot water over it to take out the extra oil, then put the meat through the food chopper, using the small blade. Soak the bread crumbs in the 1/2 cup milk. Then combine tuna fish, bread crumbs with milk, pimiento, parsley, seasonings, cream of mushroom soup, and eggs and mix thoroughly. Put into a well-greased loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for 50-60 minutes. Size of loaf "x3"x2 1/2". Serves 6-7.

Harry Jespersion is spending this week at San Francisco on business.

Henry Kane, of Coloma, was brought to the Sanatorium Wednesday morning in the Orell ambulance.

Mrs. Maude Panning leaves Sunday for Santa Cruz to attend the annual Rebekah Assembly May 13 to 16, as a delegate from Sutter Mill Rebekah lodge, at Coloma.

TAHOE CALLED "VALENTINE"

is the theory that it means "Big Water" which is a true description of the lake, but of doubtful Indian meaning. However this may be, Sanchez prefers it to Bigler, saying: (Nelle Van De Grift Sanchez, "Spanish and Indian Place Names of California," p 390). "Yet it is much to know that this pearl among all lakes has at least been fortunate enough to receive an indigenous name, escaping by a narrow margin the ignominious fate of being called Lake Bigler, for a former governor of the state."

In this connection it should be stated that a number of eminent Californians visited the lake during the sixties. One of these was the famous clergyman, Thomas Starr King, a statue of whom, now stands as one of California's two contributions to the Hall of Fame. King was an arch-enemy of slavery and of the secession of the south. Bigler was a secessionist in King's opinion, and for this reason he was one of the first to move to re-name the lake so that it would not stand as a monument to a secessionist. Having heard the new name of Tahoe he adopted it and popularized it in his sermons and other lectures.

The most famous of these was Living Water from Lake Tahoe. The lake was also visited and studied by Joseph Le Conte, Professor at the University of California, and by Mark Twain. The writings and lectures of both of these famous men did much to popularize both the lake and the new name. In the early twentieth century in both lectures and writings, George Wharton James, added to the romantic descriptions of those who preceded him. In 1915 he published a book called "The Lake of the Sky, Lake Tahoe." In this book he quotes professor Le Conte as follows:

"Oh, the exquisite beauty of this lake, its clear waters, emerald green, and the deepest ultra-marine blue; its pure shores, rocky or cleanest gravel, so clean that

Miss Southern Pine

Spring time is queen time in the United States, and here is another lovely lass who has been elevated to royalty. She is Miss Southern Pine of 1941, pretty Mary Black of Beaufort, S. C., dressed in newsprint to mark another year of progress in the use of pulp and paper products, the South's newest and potentially one of its greatest industries.

the chafing of the waves does not stain in the least the bright cleanliness of the waters; the high granite mountains with serried peaks which stand close around its very shore to guard its crystal purity—this lake, not among but on the mountains, lifted six thousand feet toward the deep blue over-reaching sky whose image it reflects. All these produce a never-ceasing and ever-increasing sense of joy, which naturally grows into love. There would seem to be no beauty except as associated with human life and connected with a sense of fitness for human happiness. Natural beauty is but the type of spiritual beauty."

The Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West have always maintained an interest in the Lake Tahoe region. In 1910 the Thirty-third Session of the Native Sons Grand Parlor convened at Tahoe City in Placer county. In 1918 the Forty-first session met at Truckee in Nevada county and only a few miles from Lake Tahoe. This
